PALMA DENOUNCES CAPOTE AS TRAITOR

Vice President Suspected of Treating With Rebels.

Disturbances Reported in Various Sections.

HAVANA, Aug. 30.—Rumor is busy today with suggestions of a conspiracy among the police and an open quarrel between President Palma and Vice President Mendez Capote. Both reports lack definite confirmation. At the palace silence is maintained.

In certain quarters Capote is suspected of bargaining with the insurgents. In the event of the fall of Palma, however, there is little likelihood that the insurgents would make Capote president. They certainly would not without, at least, the formality of an election.

In the reported quarrel at the palace bitter words are said to have passed, culminating in Palma denouncing Capote as a traitor. The vice president is said to have replied that Palma was a president without power.

A fight took place last night at Calabazar, Havana province, between 50 insurgents and 15 rural guards, with the result that the latter retreated with one man wounded.

An engagement between insurgents and government troops is reported to have occurred last night near Artemisa, province of Pinar Del Rio, near the Havana border. The result is not known.

Several exchanges of shots have been reported at various places westward of Guanajay, near the Havana border, in Pinar Del Rio. As the place is poorly protected re-inforcements of 50 rural guards have been sent there.

A portion of Pino Guerra's force is stationed at Puerto Cortez, on the south coast near San Juan de Martinez, which the government contemplates making a central point for sending men and supplies by water to Pinar Del Rio, should communication by rail be interrupted.

A train load of troops which left Havana at 1 o'clock this morning arrived safely at the city of Pinar Del Rio. They were fired upon near Taco Taco and encountered scattered shots elsewhere, but the soldiers were unharmed.

Governor Sobrado, of the province of Pinar Del Rio, went to the provincial capital on the troop train. He said he believed that he could enter into negotiation with the insurgents and settle matters within a week. His statement was received with incredulity.

The government officials here deny that Santa Clara is in any special danger. General Rodriguez, commander of the Rural guards, says that the garrison of that city is composed of 200 rural guards, and that in addition there are any number of volunteers and loyal citizens there.

Cuban Insurgents Raid an American Estate Near Cienfuegos.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—According to a despatch received at the State Department today from one of the American owners of the Constancia estate, near Cienfuegos, Cuban insurgents raided this property four days ago, taking a number of horses. The State Department did not make public the name of the American who sent the despatch. This is the first protest received from Americans against molestation of their interests. Mr. Sleeper, the American charge at Havana, was cabled to demand of the Cuban government adequate protection for the Constancia estate and all other American property similarly situated.

Locks for Panama Canal May be Built 100 Feet Wide.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Locks for the Panama canal probably will be built 100 feet wide with usable lengths of 1000 feet. The plans adopted by Congress provide for locks 95 feet wide, with usable lengths of 900 feet. As ships are now being built which would test the capacity of the 900-foot locks if offered for conveyance through the canal, Chief Engineer Stevens is of the opinion that it would be wise to increase the dimensions. It will be about two years before the work of constructing the locks will begin.

BRYAN RECEIVES NEWSPAPER MEN

Would Not Talk About Politics or Persons.

New York Streets Filled With Western Men.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—William J. Bryan spent the night aboard yacht Illini, and this morning he was taken off and went on board Lewis Nixon's house boat, anchored off Stapleton, Staten Island. One of the early callers on Mr. Bryan was Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland. Mr. Bryan returned to the Illini for luncheon.

Mr. Bryan said today that he is not to speak at Newark, N. J., Saturday night, as previously announced. Tonight he will speak at the Madison Square reception, and tomorrow morning he will go to New Haven. In the evening he will go to Bridgeport. Saturday will be spent in New York, and Mr. Bryan will be engaged with his private business. In the evening he will go to Jersey City, and deliver a speech, after which he will return to New York, to attend the dinner tendered him by newspaper men. Either Sunday night or Monday morning he will leave for Chicago, being due there Tuesday, and will speak at the Iroquois Club dinner that evening. As soon as he can get away from that dinner he will leave for Lincoln, Neb.

Just a little before noon today Mr. Bryan received the newspaper men on board the houseboat. His first word to them was that he would not talk about politics or persons.

"How about Speaker Cannon's candidacy for the Presidency?" Mr. Bryan was asked.

"As Cannon is both person and politics," Mr. Bryan replied, "I cannot discuss him."

"How about Russia and the Douma?" Mr. Bryan was asked.

"No one can speak with any degree of certainty," he replied, "as to what the immediate future of Russia will be, but we can speak with certainty of the ultimate result. I might illustrate it this way: If you ask me in February what sort of weather we will have I cannot say whether it will be snow or storm or sunshine, but I can say that in a few months we will have summer. No one can say what experiences Russia will pass through in the next few years, but it is possible to say that she is going to have a constitutional reform of government."

Mr. Bryan declined to discuss New York politics.

Scores of workmen were in Madison Square Garden early today arranging seats and decorations, so as to have everything in readiness for the Bryan reception tonight. Chief Inspector Moses W. Cortwright will be in charge of the police, and he will have under him two inspectors, nine captains, 10 sergeants and 600 patrolmen. The crowds of visitors from the various sections of the country were largely augmented today. The blocks from Twenty-third street to Forty-second street were filled all day with typical men of the West, waiting for Mr. Bryan to come ashore.

Among the early arrivals of Democrats from other cities to attend the Bryan reception were 21 delegates from New Hampshire.

"Has Mr. Hearst called?" Mr. Bryan was asked.

"No," replied Mr. Bryan.

"Do you expect him?"

"I can't say."

"It has been state that Mr. Hearst was not entirely friendly to you, but he has denied that statement. Is it true?"

"I do not think that either Mr. Hearst or myself have to deny any statement of that kind."

"What is your impression of your European trip."

"We went with the belief that it would be educational, and found it even more instructive than we had expected."

"You were in Germany, Mr. Bryan, Did you look into the attitude of that country toward the United States as regards tariff?"

"That question would drive into the tariff controversy. The tariff is too much of a question to settle in half a dozen sentences, and I have not time for more extended treatment."

Mr. Bryan declined to talk about Roger Sullivan.

"BRYAN DAY" IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—This is "Bryan day" in New York, and although the Nebraskan, who last night slept in a yacht on Gravesend bay, will not again put foot on native soil until late this afternoon, the many welcoming delegations in town were early astir, putting the finishing touches on their several and varied programs. The weather signs were not good, but the enthusiastic welcomers did not have their eyes on the skies.

It was after 1 o'clock this morning when Mr. Bryan retired on board Colonel Gollra's yacht Illini, but it had been planned not to disturb him early today, and he took advantage of the opportunity to fortify his physical powers against the fatigue of tonight's meeting at Madison Square Garden.

At the home of Lewis Nixon at Stapleton, Staten Island, where Mr. Bryan spent last evening with personal friends, he appeared in robust health. He has a clear complexion and his eyes shone and danced as he talked.

While Mr. Nixon and his guests were at dinner, the Jacob H. Tamm Association, of Tompkinsville, which became active as soon as it was known that Mr. Bryan was expected, un-

WILL NOT DISCUSS POLITICS.

Bryan Receives Great Ovation Upon Arrival in New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—In exuberant spirits and bronzed by the sun of many climes during a year of travel around the world, William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska, twice the nominee of the Democratic party for President of the United States and already endorsed for the candidacy of 1908, passed up New York bay this afternoon on steamer Prinzess Irene. He received an ovation from large welcoming parties, which went down to Quarantine despite the threatening skies to meet and cheer the incoming vessel and its distinguished passenger.

Mr. Bryan did not enjoy his usual health during the voyage, but he was much better today and said that he felt sure he would be able to carry out during the next few days the plans which have been made for him. He was very much fatigued when he boarded the steamer and during the entire voyage suffered from indigestion and severe headache. His indisposition was not serious enough, however, to interfere with his work, and he devoted a large portion of the nine days at sea in preparing his speeches and in keeping up his correspondence.

He left the Prinzess Irene shortly after the vessel had anchored in quarantine. First he went on board two tugs, which had been chartered by "Bryan's Nebraska Home Folks," where he was exuberantly greeted and hailed as the next President. He then went on board the trim little yacht Illini, owned by his lifelong friend and schoolmate, Edward P. Gaffra of St. Louis, and where such well known Democrats as Norman E. Mack, national committeeman for New York, and Daniel J. Campau, national committeeman for Michigan, were awaiting him.

In the Illini Mr. Bryan was taken to the landing of the Ocean Yacht Club at Stapleton, Long Island, where he landed, and was whisked away in an automobile to the home of Lewis Nixon, Ben Brew, on the heights of Tompkinsville, overlooking the harbor.

Here Mr Bryan entered on a serious conference with intimate personal friends and men of prominence in his party. No especial political significance was attached to this conference by those who attended it. They declared its purport was merely to learn Mr. Bryan's wish regarding the plans which have been made for him during the next few weeks and to acquaint him with the drift of affairs at home.

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by his wife and daughter, Miss Grace Bryan. Mrs. Bryan went with him on the Illini and to Mr. Nixon's home. Miss Bryan remained on the steamer and afterward spent the night with friends in the city.

Mr Bryan could not be drawn into a discussion of political questions today. He declared:

"What I have to say of politics at this time and with my incomplete knowledge of affairs at home, will be said tomorrow night at the Madison Square Garden reception under the auspices of the Commercial Travellers' Anti-Trust League. Probably then you will find that I shall discuss subjects I have spoken of before." Mr. Bryan added with twinkling eyes.

Asked pointedly regarding the probability of his candidature, Mr. Bryan said he had nothing to add to the letter he wrote former Senator J. K. Jones of Arkansas, in which he said he might accept a third nomination under conditions which he named.

DELEGATES TO MAKE SELECTION.

Moran Will Neither Favor Nor Oppose Candidates for Other Offices.

BOSTON, Aug. 29.—District Attorney John B. Moran, Prohibition candidate for governor and candidate for the Democratic nomination for the same office, issued a statement today, in which he says that neither he nor the members of his campaign committee will favor or oppose the candidacy of any man for the office of lieutenant governor, attorney general or any office on the state ticket. The statement says that Mr. Moran will not make an alliance with any candidate for any office. It says: "The delegates in convention must be allowed, without dictation from any quarter, to make their own selection."

TO SUPPRESS POACHING.

New Brunswick Authorities Arrest Oyster Fishermen.

SHEDIAC, New Brunswick, Aug. 29.—The fisheries department of the federal government has issued instructions to suppress the extensive poaching which it is claimed has been carried on along the New Brunswick shore of the Strait of Northumberland. Eight arrests of persons charged with fishing oysters illegally have been made here during the past few days. In attempting to arrest two oyster fishermen the government officers were fired on, but not injured. One of the officers in returning the fire wounded a poacher in the leg. A government tug which has been sent out on patrol duty has destroyed a large number of lobster pots along the coast. The lobster fishing season closed August 15.

NEW TARIFF AGREEMENT.

To Go Into Effect Between Spain and United States September 1.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—American goods in Spanish warehouses are to have the benefit of the favored nation tariff treatment which will go into effect between Spain and the United States on September 1. The State Department received a despatch today from the American minister at Madrid, Mr. Collier, announcing this fact. The despatch also says that the royal decree putting into effect the new tariff agreement between Spain and the United States is to be published in that country today. President Roosevelt will issue an proclamation in a few days declaring the new agreement.

VERDICT OF NOT GUILTY.

Judge Discharges Defendants in Readville Pool Selling Case.

DEDHAM, Mass., Aug. 29.—Not guilty was the decision rendered today by Judge Harrison A. Thaxton, in the northern Norfolk district court in the cases of Edward A. Furberg, Thomas H. Flynn, Maurice M. Welch and George B. Rouse of Dedham, whose cases were heard in court yesterday on the charge of registering bets and pool selling at the Readville race track last Friday in violation of the law.

Judge Plimpton's decision was very brief. He held that the defendants' method of betting at the track could be carried on. He agreed with the counsel for the defense that there was no evidence of pool selling in the cases of Welch and Furberg, and that the method of Rouse in offering a bet and Flynn's method of accepting it and making a memorandum of it on a piece of paper was not registering a bet, as one man could not make a bet alone. The defendants were then discharged.

INSURGENT SPIRIT GROWING.

People Restless in the Country Districts of Cuba.

HAVANA, Aug. 29.—The surrender today of some of the more signficant insurgent leaders in the provinces of Matanzas and Santa Clara, and the coming in of a scattering few insurgents in response to the Government's proffer of amnesty, is vastly more than offset by the insurgent sentiment sounding stronger daily in the country districts of the provinces of Havana, Pina del Rio and Santa Clara, and now is reported to be gaining headway in Santiago, from which province, however, there are as yet no reports of the existence of organized bands.

The testimony of persons arriving here from the country is unanimous to the effect that the people are restless and becoming more and more excited. There are grave doubts of the loyalty of recruits, and especially of negro recruits, who are suspected in many quarters of a willingness to join the other side, with which many of their people are identified.

The undeniable evidence of the growth of insurrectionist sentiment is causing increasing doubt as to whether the government, after all, will be able to cope promptly and successfully with the movement, and there is much discussion of the possibilities of a peaceful settlement. This centres around a projected meeting of Cuban veterans and other prominent men to consider the question of approaching Pino Guerra and other insurgent commanders, as well as leaders of the Liberal party and members of the government, with a view to ascertaining whether the difficulty cannot be settled through some compromise.

At the present stage of affairs, however, any compromise would appear to be out of the question, as the government continues confident that it will soon be able to suppress the movement.

Many Cubans feel that patriotism demands some effort be made to end the war and avoid the possibility of intervention by the United States. There is no question that foreigners would welcome intervention to restore peace, and many Cubans would do likewise but for the sentiment of pride in making it appear that Cuba is able to maintain order within her own boundaries and unwillingness to have the world regard her as the ward of the United States.

Government officials, while not denying that many people, and especially the more ignorant classes, are uneasy, predict that matters will become quiet after a few heavy blows have been dealt the rebels. They characterize the stories of disaffection among the government forces as inventions of the opposition newspapers and not worthy of denial.

SOUTH CAROLINA LIQUOR WAR

Anti-Dispensary Candidate Leads in Primaries.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 29.—Returns from the Democratic primaries give Martin F. Ansel, the anti-state dispensary candidate, a good lead for governor, with Richard I. Manning, the dispensary candidate, in second place. The race is now between these two and will be settled finally two weeks from now.

J. Frazer Lyon, anti-dispensary, has a long lead for attorney general.

The legislature is still in doubt and it will require the official count to determine the sentiment of that body as to the state dispensary. The next legislature will decide the fate of the state dispensary.

Senator Tillman has been heavily scratched, amounting to from 30 to 35 per cent.

Opening Night of the Aquidneck Grange Fair--Plans for a New Church Building.

Aquidneck Grange opened its bazaar at the town hall last evening, when a large number of people were gathered. The grounds and hall looked pretty in their decorations. The grounds are enclosed with a wire fence by Mr. Percy T. Bailey, and at the entrance tickets were sold by Messrs. J. Overton and Edward J. Peckham. At the right is the headquarters, and back of this is erected a large tent, where supper is served. Last evening about 200 partook of the supper, consisting of cold meats, salads, rolls, cake and coffee. The tables were decorated with palms and cut flowers, while the two poles were draped with bunting. Back of the tent a commodious kitchen was put up, where the committee—Mrs. Howard G. Peckham, Mrs. Howard R. Peckham, Mrs. R. S. Peckham, Mrs. Daniel Hazard, Mrs. Harry C. Sherman and Mrs. Joel Peckham—prepared the viands. A large number of ladies helped serve at the two tables. Mrs. John Nicholson at the entrance of this tent had a large booth for soft drinks.

At the main entrance of the hall flags of several nations helped make the decorations attractive. On the right on entering Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. John R. Austin had the grab bag booth, with pink and white decorations. Next Mrs. William Bushell served home-made candies from a large red booth, and Miss Nellie R. Peckham sold flowers from an attractive booth of white, with trimmings of asparagus fern. At the north end a gypsy camp was the feature, where members went to have their fortunes told by Miss Eliza M. Peckham. An orchestra of five pieces, with Mr. Frank T. Peckham as leader, furnished music throughout the evening.

On the left side, beginning at the north end, Miss Louise Barker in Japanese array served tea and crackers from a booth elaborately trimmed in Japanese effect. Next Mrs. E. Marion Peckham and Miss Helen Peckham sold cake from a booth in red and white. Mr. John R. Austin, Mr. Albert C. Young and Mr. Charles H. Barlow had a chance wheel, which netted good profits and furnished excitement in the crowd. Mrs. P. M. Conley and Miss Martha Peckham sold fancy articles from a booth effectively trimmed in green and white, as did Mrs. Sarah Manchester at the apron booth.

The council chamber served as an ice cream room and was attractively decorated with flags. A lemonade stand helped to fill up a niche and was in charge of Miss Mary E. Peckham. Mrs. George E. Ward had charge of the ice cream, which was served from small tables. As assistants she had Misses Alberta and Rowena Ward. A large rug from John H. Kazanjian & Co., which is sold on shares, occupied an open space on the wall; besides which the decorations about the hall were by Mr. Karl M. Stone. Other chances, on a large curl, a rug and several other articles, were sold. Mr. James Tuber and Mr. William Caswell, in charge of the shooting range, made a goodly sum last evening. Beside these there are the African dodger, Happy Hooligan and dime booths.

At a meeting of the official board of the Middletown Methodist Episcopal Church, Tuesday evening, a special committee reported that two mechanics had examined the church building, that the expense of the necessary repairs to put the structure in proper condition would be from $2,000 to $3,000, and that there was little assurance of permanent results at that price. After careful consideration of the whole matter, the board appointed a committee to solicit pledges for a new church building and to secure preliminary plans.

PORTSMOUTH.

[Regular correspondence of the News.]

The funeral of George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lavers, took place Tuesday afternoon from the residence of his parents on Child street. Rev. J. Sturgis Pearce of St. Paul's read the Episcopal service and the interment followed in St. Paul's churchyard. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. There were no bearers.

Mr. Henry D. McCrone, son of Rev. Henry W. McCrone of Amesbury, Mass., is visiting Mr. Gideon W. Almy.

Mr. Frank L. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Brown, who has been located in Mitchell, S. D., for some time, has opened in conjunction with others a business college in that city, in which he is principal of the telegraph department. He began as telegraph operator in 1894, when 16 years of age, and since that time has become proficient in the telegraph service, commercial, railroad and government, having served in the Philippines, and for the last four years has been connected with some of the leading boards of trade in the West, serving both as operator and manager.

The Tiverton lawn party for the benefit of the Central Baptist Church was well attended, several hundred being present and sales from the various tables being large. The supper was excellent and its patrons numerous. The beautiful grounds were lighted by electricity by the Newport & Fall River Electric Railway Company, more than 400 bulbs being used. The Townsend orchestra of Newport played continuously and one of the women members sang many songs in a sweet, clear voice. The grounds are so large that it needs louder music than an orchestra to make the music effective. The long waits on the cars at the ferry on the Tiverton side were tiresome.

REMBRANDT A BANKRUPT.

The whole world is celebrating this summer the three hundredth birthday of a little insignificant Dutchman in ragged hair and beard and untidy dress of shabby brown. Wife and son and faithful servant all dead, deserted by all friends on account of his bankruptcy, the old man, indifferent to dress and surroundings, pottered about, still painting what nobody cared for, etching and drawing, careless of appearances, wiping his brushes on the seat of his trousers. When Rembrandt died he was buried at the cost of the town; today a single canvas of his is worth hundreds of thousands of dollars, and every etching and scrap of his drawing is as precious as a diamond. What difference does it make to anybody now that he was bankrupt? What difference did it make to himself, in fact, so long as he could draw?

PERSONALS.

....Alexander Graham Kelsey, 55 years old, son of the late Dr. Kelsey of Rochester, died suddenly at his home at Catskill Tuesday from apoplexy. Because of his remarkable resemblance to Edward VII of England he was known as "the King's double."

....Pere Hyacinthe was noted in several of the Christian Endeavor gatherings in Geneva recently, and it was an especial pleasure for the American delegates to greet at their rally the American wife of the great French preacher. Her address discussed with frankness and power the evils of the use of tobacco.

....Mrs. Ida Martin, widow of John Martin, of Pittsburg, managing clerk for a brokerage firm of Brooklyn, has received news that she has fallen heir to one-thirteenth of a fortune of $100,000,000 or about $7,700,000. The fortune was left by Michael Roup, a German brewer.

....Professor William F. Buck Dwight of Vassar College died of apoplexy suddenly Wednesday, aged 73. He had been connected with Vassar 21 years. Professor Dwight was born in Constantinople in May, 1833, the son of Harrison Gray Otis Dwight, an American missionary. He came to the United States for the first time in 1848 and entered Yale College, from which he was graduated in 1851. Five years later he established a female institute at Englewood, N. J., and later taught at West Point Military Academy, going from there to Vassar.

HEARTS APART.

[Catholic Standard and Times.]

To count the days until we twain
May read each other's eyes again.
And dwell once more in Arcady,
Is all my joy away from thee—
Is all my joy and all my pain.

When leaden-footed minutes wane
To hours that burden heart and brain,
'Twere but a useless agony
To count the days.
Did thy most gracious heart not deign
To bid my own heart entertain
The hope of better things to be;
Did I not know thy constancy
And that, until we meet again,
Twe count the days.

WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT, JAY WAY?

Of all the fantastic performances in American politics, has there ever been anything like this Bryan reception? Grant, victorious in four years of war and President for eight years, was not received with such demonstrations. Dewey, the naval hero, the first we had had for a generation, was not received with such shoutings from every part of the country. James G. Blaine, believed to be a very popular man in his day, could go abroad and come back with little more attention than any ordinary traveler received.

Bryan has no record of achievement in war or in peace. The public policy with which he is mainly identified is utterly destructive and has been twice repudiated by the people, and is now disclaimed by most of his friends in their declaration that silverism is a dead issue. If so, why all this powwow over the great apostle of 16 to 1? But we are told that he is the foe of corporations and trusts and monopolies. So is Theodore Roosevelt, who has actually accomplished something; so is every cross-roads politician. Nothing is easier and cheaper than to blackguard corporations and rich men. If they are as bad as they are painted, Bryan is not the only man who has decorated them. Tom Watson and the Populists generally can outdo him in throwing verbal brickbats at men who have money.

He is not a man of uncommon eloquence. When he was a youngster he received the name of the "Boy orator of the Platte," and has been doing business on that ever since. He is not the only man who has had a great reputation as a Demosthenes in his own country who has failed to sustain it in the national arena. He has said few if any clever things and epigrams since his "Crown of thorns and cross of gold speech," which threw a convention into hysterics and caused his most unexpected nomination for the Presidency, and which constitutes most of his oratorical capital at the present day. Well, as a nation we love a crowd and a band and a shout, but if Bryan is so prodigiously popular why did no one think of nominating him for the Presidency two years ago?

THE UNIFORM OF THE SAILOR.

Attention has been called several times recently in a forcible manner to the fact that discrimination is often made against the sailors of the regular service, and that the uniform they wear instead of being looked upon as a badge of honor and a mark of distinction is apparently regarded as indicative of a lower social position than that of those who wear no such uniform. The Navy department and the officials at Washington from President Roosevelt down have been considerably stirred over this attitude toward the sailors and have taken pains to sharply rebuke this spirit and to laud the man behind the guns as worthy the same attention and respect given to other men, and even a little more because of the fact that they are enrolled among the nation's defenders.

Of course there are some sailors in the navy who deserve little respect, jo t as there are such men in every walk in life, but it is also true that there are many of the rank and file of the naval forces who are respectable fellows and the equals of many of those who look upon them with disdain and seek to snub them at every opportunity. The point made by the defenders of the sailors is that the fact that a man belongs to the navy is not in itself any reason why he should be looked down upon but rather the contrary, and that until some good reason is discovered for treating him with contempt he should be considered as entitled to the high opinion of every one he meets, because of the fact that he wears the uniform of the country and is enlisted in her service.

The officers of the navy know how to appreciate the men at their highest worth and it has been particularly pleasing to notice how those high in rank have come to the defense of the sailors before the mast and have given the public to understand in no uncertain way that they believe that the man who wears the uniform of Uncle Sam ought to be respected, for the sake of his uniform if not for his own sake, unless he does some act to bring disgrace upon the cloth he wears. This spirit is cordially to be commended, for upon it depends the stability of the service. So long as the officers appreciate the men the public will be obliged, to some degree at least, to entertain similar feelings toward the sailors. It would be unfortunate indeed if the nation should fail to appreciate the value of the men behind the guns.

Such instances as have recently come to light of attempts to humiliate men in naval uniform and to deny them the same privileges accorded men who do not wear that mark of distinction are, however, only scattered, and there is reason to believe that in general the sailor is credited with the merit he deserves and received on an equal footing with those who hold no position in the service. It would be unfortunate for the service if the impression should be allowed to gain ground among the men that they are considered a little lower socially because of the uniform they wear, for loyalty to what the uniform stands for would be likely to wane and the undersuch an influence. We must honor those who represent the nation in any official capacity.

DISEASES OF INFANT REPUBLICS.

Let us not blame Cuba. Libre too much for breaking out with an eruption. There are diseases of infancy in republics as well as in individuals, we have had our own. We were in the teething stage of independence when we suffered a little from the Whiskey rebellion in Pennsylvania and Shay's rebellion in Massachusetts. A little later Mr. Quincy of Massachusetts threatened that New England would secede if the Louisiana purchase was cut up into states, because that would transfer political power from New England, but when Louisiana receded New England recorded any talk of secession as the most unpardonable treason. And then several years later there was the Dorr war in this state. Our country was a healthy infant, with an uncommonly good constitution and nurses of exceptional ability and faithfulness, but it did not escape the diseases of infancy.

The Liberal party in Cuba makes serious charges of interference by the Palma administration with the presidential election last December. The election didn't look so much like ours as like an election in Venezuela. But, after all, there is something to say in favor of a strong administration. Probably elections in Mexico elect, but they didn't in the early years of Diaz. He seemed his own election by armed power, and hasn't run much chance of defeat since. A certain degree of continuity in power is essential until the people become used to things and customs and traditions begin to be formed. We do not approve of Palma's disarming the Liberals and issuing guns to the Moderates, or locking up 2,000 Liberals from before the election till after the inauguration. But we must make allowances for Spanish-Americans, and universal suffrage is not an end; it is only means to an end, and sometimes other means must be used. The security of the government is a prime essential.

GARVIN'S CANDIDACY.

Ex-Governor Garvin had arranged a little plan whereby he was to be a candidate again for a seat in the state house of representatives from Cumberland. According to this scheme, Senator McKenna was to retire and Representative Berry to be promoted to the senate, but the plan did not work. Both Senator McKenna and Representative Berry state positively that they will not be a party to any such arrangement, the former saying, "My views on that question are just the same as many more Cumberland Democrats. Dr. Garvin has for years enjoyed all the honors the town ought to confer on any man, and I am not in favor of his displacing anybody."

The attitude of the two representatives has served to stir the Democrats of Cumberland to a high pitch. A strong sentiment against granting any more town loans to the veteran office holder has sprung up since his announcement of "preferring the legislature to Congress" and the politicians are preparing to make a big fight in the caucuses against Dr. Garvin if he continues to desire to go to the Assembly.

Estimates for canal appropriations for 1907 are now being prepared at the offices of the commission. From present indications these estimates will be about the last to be made for the canal plant, but it does not follow that Congress will be asked to appropriate any less money annually than has been needed in the past. It is said at the commission's offices that about $25,000,000 can be expended each year judiciously, but after this year the larger proportion of the money will be paid for labor resulting in a much better showing in actual canal digging.

The Massachusetts Democrats are still looking for a man of prominence to defeat the candidacy of District Attorney Moran of Boston for the gubernatorial nomination. The latest name mentioned is that of ex-Mayor McNamee of Cambridge, who it is believed is willing to enter the contest at least he has not declined, as others have done.

The United States is one of the "favored nations" in Spain, the agreement between the two countries regarding tariff concessions having been signed by President Roosevelt and King Alfonso.

Thirty-five companies have paid $55,000,000 insurance on their San Francisco losses. There still remain 85 companies which have not settled.

THE SEPTEMBER MAGAZINES.

The September Century covers a wide range of interest. Exciting travel in Central Asia, the artistic side of the Palisades, mission work in Labrador, present day Zoroastrianism, the beginning of foreign missions in this country, late scientific research into the structural differences of the white and black races, the question of higher education for young men intending to follow agriculture, and stories grave and gay. Professor Bailey's presentation of facts and figures gathered at first hand from Cornell University students, setting forth, in two previous papers in this magazine, the attitude of young men today toward farming, is followed by a concluding paper on "The Agricultural College and the Farm Youth." Likewise based on students' replies to letters of inquiry. The scientific article of the number is Dr. Robert Bennett Bean's summary of late authoritative researches into the fundamental physical and mental differences of the brains of the white and the black races. "Getting into Khiva" is the first of a series of three papers by Langdon Warner, recounting the exciting personal experiences of a member of Professor Raphael Pumpelly's archaeological expedition in visiting this ancient and isolated city.

Charles M. Skinner's "The Gates of the Hudson" is a sympathetic appreciation of the Palisades. There are two articles to make special appeal to the religious world: Gustav Kobbe's narrative of the unselfish, isolated life of the Moravian brotherhood "Down on the Labrador," and the late Henry R. Elliot's story of the "Haystack Prayer Meeting," the starting-point of the foreign missionary movement in this country. In "A Religion Nearly Three Thousand Years Old," A. V. Williams Jackson, professor of Indo-Iranian languages at Columbia, draws a picture of life today among the so-called Persian Fire-worshippers.

The second instalment of A. E. W. Mason's "Running Water" makes a strong bid for rank as a novel of exceptional appeal and brilliancy. "Seeing France with Uncle John," by Anna Warner, continues a laugh-provoking sallie on American travelers abroad. There are several short stories to round out the varied program, one being another of Maurice Francis Egan's humorous "Sexton Maginnis" studies. Half a dozen prominent humorists contribute to the department "In Lighter Vein."

The Popular Science Monthly for September opens with an article on the value of science by M. H. Poincare, president of the Paris Academy of Sciences. This is the first of a series of articles on this subject, the English translation of which has been made by Professor George Bruce Halsted of Kenyon College. The article considers the features that give value and validity to science with special reference to the foundations of mathematics. Dr. D. T. MacDougal, who has recently been given charge of the work in botany at the Carnegie Institution, writes on discontinuous variations in pedigree cultures, a subject that has become important for botany and agriculture since de Vries has shown how new varieties occur.

Dr. W. H. Hobbs explains the work in seismology now being done abroad and our own deficiencies in this direction. Dr. Simon Flexner, director of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, in an important article entitled "Immunity and Tuberculosis," gives the authoritative information on this subject. R. M. Brown explains, with illustrations, the protection of the alluvial basin of the Mississippi. Maurice Fishberg contributes a statistical study of the characteristics that distinguish Jews, Dr. S. E. Sheppard describes the development of mechanics and H. W. Furniss contributes an illustrated article on the diamonds and carbons of Brazil.

POLAR EXPEDITION ABANDONED.

Walter Wellman, leader of the polar expedition, has sent the following letter from Spitzbergen:

"I have decided not to attempt a voyage northward this year on account of defects in the mechanical equipment of my airship. According to the announcement made last winter in anticipation of such possibilities, the expedition will continue next year. My party is now completing a great balloon house and other features of the plant and making experiments with a view to the campaign of 1907. This year will be one of preparation and the next will be one of action.

"Our confidence of success in 1907 has been increased by this summer's work and by our weather observations. The motors work well and the balloon is in good condition, but the car and mechanical equipment will be entirely rebuilt in Paris during the winter. The expedition will arrive here next May and will find everything ready. This year the whole summer has been consumed in building the plant. I shall return to Europe the middle of September, leaving a small party here to guard our headquarters."

Providence Liquor Saloons Ordered Closed Labor Day Forenoon.

Big Business House Adopts New Spelling—Close of Pawtuxet Old Home Week.

The liquor dealers throughout Providence yesterday received the notice issued by the Board of Police Commissioners ordering them to keep their saloons closed on Monday next (Labor day) until 12:30 o'clock noon. Chief of Police Matthews gave the captains of the various police districts instructions yesterday to see that every liquor dealer was notified. The notices are issued pursuant to the action of the Board of Police Commissioners taken at a meeting held Tuesday, August 7, previous to which a request had been made by the union officials in charge of the Labor Day celebration that the saloons be ordered closed during the forenoon. The proprietors have authority to enter their saloons for the purpose of icing or otherwise caring for their stock, but no sales must be made until after the hour specified.

The Callender, McAuslan & Troup Company of Providence has adopted the simplified spelling recommended by President Roosevelt, and hereafter the advertisements and correspondence of the firm will be spelled according to the rules laid down by the simplified spelling board. The change went into effect yesterday. Walter Callender stated that the new spelling had been adopted by the house from the standpoint of convenience. "The saving of time by the use of the new method," Mr. Callender said, "is very considerable. 'Thru' is much sooner set down than 'through,' and the economy of time made possible by the use of the new method is well worth considering in a large business house." Though the action of the firm in adopting the simplified spelling may seem at first a radical step, Mr. Callender made it plain that the change is not at all of a revolutionary nature. But comparatively few of the 300 words advanced by the board for simplification are included in the ordinary business vocabulary. Moreover, many of the words in the list, such as labor for "labour," endeavor for "endeavour," and so on, have long been accepted and employed. Only a small number of the words will present an unusual appearance in advertisements and correspondence.

In a blaze of red fire the Pawtuxet Old Home Week celebration was brought to a close last evening with a parade of handsomely decorated automobiles. The houses and grounds were decorated with lanthing and Japanese lanterns and all along the route of the parade the residents burned colored lights. The principal exercises of the day were in connection with the unveiling of a bronze tablet to mark the completion of a century of the Pawtuxet Baptist Church. The ceremony of unveiling was carried out by Jessie Arnold Lee, a lineal descendant of Peleg Arnold, one of the men who donated the site in 1761-5. These second exercises were partly indoors and partly outside on the church lawn. At the indoor services at 2:30, Rev. Henry M. King, D. D., pastor emeritus of the First Baptist Church of Providence delivered a centennial address.

Joseph P. Boylan of Providence, a well known young man of the Fox Point district, died on the train while returning from the State Sanatorium for Consumptives at Wallum pond yesterday afternoon. Death was due to consumption. He was 21 years old. It was only three weeks ago that young Boylan was taken ill. He had not been sick in years and was known as a strong and healthy youth. He was taken ill suddenly August 7 and made no headway against the disease. A physician was called and decided that an outdoor life would give him the only chance of recovery. Boylan went to the State Sanatorium last Thursday, but gradually wired away, growing weaker from day to day, until he felt that the place offered him no chance of life. On the recommendation of the physician in charge his father went to Wallum Pond yesterday afternoon to bring the boy to the Rhode Island Hospital. Together with his father and Dr. Hayes of the sanatorium, he boarded a train for Providence. He seemed quite happy at the prospect of returning to the city and spoke cheerfully of his recovery. Suddenly, almost without a word, he fell back in his seat and in a few moments was dead. The physician administered stimulants, but his efforts were of no avail.

Work on the new stone addition to the Roger William Baptist Church, Providence, is progressing satisfactorily. Through the benevolence of Jesse Metcalf and family, who duplicated all cash donations made up to August 1, sufficient money has been raised to pay for the structure, including some changes not contemplated in the original plan. It is expected that the new addition will be ready for use by the middle of October, when all repairs to the old structure will be completed. The total amount of money collected for the addition is nearly $20,000, and of this sum the family of Jesse Metcalf have contributed $9,063.90. Of the equal amount which has been obtained from other sources over $7,000 was subscribed by the people who live in the community where the church is located. The remainder, about $1,800, has come largely from various Baptist churches in this state.

A French aeronaut has had an adventure which shows the perils of air trips. He made his ascent from Rueil, and was soon in difficulties. Before Courbevoie was reached all his ballast was exhausted, and his balloon sank so low that it became entangled in the electric wires. This set up a short circuit, and the balloon took fire. This, of course, produced collapse, and M. Lacombe was precipitated to the earth. He fell a distance of 13 feet, but luckily escaped unhurt.

PRESIDENT HIPPLE KILLED HIMSELF.

Philadelphia Banker Blew Out His Brains.

Failure Due Entirely to Loans Made to Segal.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—The suspicion entertained that Frank K. Hipple, president of the embarrassed Real Estate Trust Company, who was found dead at his home in Bryn Mawr, Pa., last Friday, committed suicide was confirmed today by Joseph N. King, coroner of Montgomery county. When he made the announcement Dr. Albert H. Read, the coroner's physician, was standing near, and he added: "You can say that Mr. Hipple blew out his brains."

Since the death of Mr. Hipple the family physician and the coroner maintained that he died of cerebral hemorrhage while taking a bath. The coroner today said: "When I went to Bryn Mawr Friday morning to investigate the sudden death of Mr. Hipple, and discovered he had committed suicide, I decided to suppress the fact for a few days, in order to prevent a run on the company. I thought if there was anything wrong in Mr. Hipple's transactions the directors would have a chance to make up whatever deficits there were."

The coroner also stated that Hipple had placed the muzzle of a 38-caliber revolver in his mouth and shot himself. The ball passed upward and lodged in the brain. The shooting took place in the bathroom. Mrs. Hipple was not aware that her husband had killed himself until the arrival of the family physician.

Samuel F. Houston, vice president of the failed trust company, said today that the work on the plan to reopen the bank is being pushed.

He said: "It is not necessary to have $7,000,000, but we want that sum guaranteed. If the guarantee is secured a large amount of cash would not be required, as all danger of a run on the company would then be removed."

Mr. Converse is authority for the statement that the failure was due entirely to the loans of Segal.

PRESENTMENT ON ICE TRUST.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The August grand jury today handed a presentment to Judge Rosalski, in which they said they had gone through a great mass of evidence concerning the alleged ice trust, but they did not find sufficient evidence upon which to base an indictment against any company or individuals. The jury was then discharged without the customary thanks of the court.

HONOR WILLIAM CONWAY.

North Atlantic Squadron Unites With Residents of Camden, Me.

CAMDEN, Me., Aug. 30.—The North Atlantic squadron, the Maine commandery of the military order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, the local Grand Army posts and the people of Camden today united in honoring the bravery and memory of William Conway, a native of this town, who, while on duty at the Pensacola navy yard at the breaking out of the Civil war, was ordered to haul down the American flag in token of surrender, and although threatened to be cut down for his disobedience persistently and indignantly refused to obey, as he believed his superior officers were guilty of disloyalty. A boulder, weighing about 30 tons, has been erected in front of the Congregational Church, and the ceremony of unveiling it was arranged for today. Attached to the boulder is a bronze tablet, appropriately inscribed.

Arrangements were made for a parade at noon of 500 blue-jackets from the battleship division of the North Atlantic squadron, which was anchored in the harbor, together with five torpedo boat destroyers, members of the Loyal Legion of Maine and members of the Grand Army, with music by the United States steamship Maine and the Togus national home bands.

The following letter from President Roosevelt to be read at the unveiling exercises was received by Major Henry S. Burrage of Togus:

"Sir:

"I wish it were in my power to be present at the time when the erection of the Conway memorial is to be celebrated. As this is not possible, will you let me express through you my sincere appreciation of the action taken in erecting this memorial? Conway stands as typical of the best among the enlisted men of the army and navy, to whom this country can never pay too great homage. The fidelity and patriotism of the sailor, shown under the most trying and difficult circumstances when his commanding officers proved faithless, should be graven on the hearts not only of our people as a whole, but especially upon those of our people who fill the regiments of our army and man the ships of our navy. I again congratulate you upon thus commemorating his sturdy loyalty.

"Sincerely yours,

"Theodore Roosevelt."

CONFERENCE OF ARMENIANS.

Congress to Take Action on Race War Between Armenians and Tartars.

ERIVAN, Russia, Aug. 30.—The first general conference of Armenians opened today at the Etchmiadzine monastery which is the seat of the Armenian Catholic patriarch. The principal subject for discussion is the question of the re-organization of the schools in consequence of the restoration of the Armenian church property by the Russian government, but the most important action of the congress is likely to be in connection with measures for ending the race war between the Armenians and Tartars.

TERRIFIC CYCLONE AT SEA.

Italian Steamer Washed by Seas 60 Feet High in Storm.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—News of a terrific cyclone at sea, August 21, was brought to port today, by Italian steamer Mongibelle from Mediterranean ports. The Mongibelle ran into the storm August 24. It raged for 24 hours, during which the wind shifted to nearly every point on the compass. The seas, at times, ran to a height of 60 feet. Although the steamer sustained no damage, she labored violently and the decks were constantly flooded.

The officers of the Mongibelle sighted whaling bark Greyhound of New Bedford, Mass., a couple of days before the storm arose, and they believe she must have suffered in the blow.

WILBUR SALE CONCLUDED.

All the Land Advertised Now Disposed of, Leaving the Undivided Portions.

The adjourned administrators' sale of the Wilbur farm lands was held this morning, and all the property advertised has now been disposed of. The first sale satisfied the bank's claim on the property, and today's was conducted without the restrictions of the other. Today's business netted about $10,000, and with this it is hoped to meet the claims against the estate so that there will be no need of selling any of the undivided portions of the property, which have been reserved from the first. The sale today was attended by several new bidders.

The first plot put under the hammer was that known as No. 1, a big piece of about nine acres, with frontage on both Hliss road and Kay street. It contains according to the plat 363,360 square feet, and was knocked down at 1 7-16 cents per foot, to William P. Sheffield, to whom the plot adjoining was sold last week.

The party then went to the Boulevard extension to Water Works road, where plots 6, 7 and 8 adjoining, each containing 71,680 square feet, were sold to Joseph L. De Terra of Middletown. They brought 2½, 1½ and 13-16 cents per foot respectively.

On the other side of the roadway lots 11 and 10 were purchased by Carl Jurgens for 2¾ and 1 cent per foot respectively. Each contains 71,817 square feet, as does plot 9, which was the last sold, being low land and purchased by P. H. Burgan at ⅝ of a cent per foot.

The land has been sold to parties who look forward to its future development as a residential section, believing that the growth of the city must be in that direction.

DURING VONLIARLIARSKI FUNERAL.

Extraordinary Precautions Taken to Prevent Disturbances.

WARSAW, Russian Poland, Aug. 30.—Extraordinary precautions to prevent disturbances or demonstrations marked the funeral this morning of General Vonliarliarski, who was shot and killed while out driving here August 27. All the shops were shut, and preceding the funeral procession were squads of mounted police and Cossacks, with fingers on the triggers of sacks, with fingers on the triggers of their revolvers and rifles, as a warning to the people not to look out of the windows. The few pedestrians who ventured into the streets were promptly driven indoors by the police or troops.

tossed a lot of fireworks. Shortly after dinner Mr. Bryan was serenaded by the M. U. V. Elsbigbeit German Singing Society, 30 strong. This is the society which took third prize at the international singing contest. Its first number was "My Old Kentucky Home," followed by German selections. Mr. Bryan made a short speech, thanking the singers, and telling them that he would always remember the incident. Several of the singers were introduced to Mr. Bryan, and expressed a wish to meet Mrs. Bryan.

When Mrs. Bryan was taken out by her husband, Mr. Bryan said: "I have no German blood in my veins, but my wife has. All of my Germans in my wife's name, so I can't thank you in the language of your fatherland."

"We're all good Americans now," said the leader of the society.

"Those who love their fatherland always love the land of their adoption and make the best kind of citizens" Mr. Bryan replied.

There were several callers later in the evening among them Burton C. Harrison. One of them asked Mr. Bryan what he thought of the physiocratic system of taxation, and he said it was not interesting. He remembered a boy who had once spelt church "schurich," and said he thought boys like him would be especially pleased with the idea of spelling by sound.

A feature of the evening was the speedy manner in which Mrs. Bryan's imported dachshund "Richard Croker" made himself at home. He made many friends and was much petted.

Mr. Bryan refused to talk politics during the evening, first before he left to re-embark for the night on the Ithiel, he expressed himself as very grateful for the kindness shown by President Roosevelt in facilitating the landing of himself and his family.

Miss Grace Bryan, who yesterday proceeded with the Princess Irene to her pier in Hoboken, was there presented with a postal card two feet long and 1½ feet wide, on the front of which was a likeness of her father. The postal card was made of metal. It was presented by Mr. Bryan's wellwishers in the mermaid school at Kicksville, Mo.

With the landing of Mr. Bryan at Pier A at 4 o'clock this afternoon the official reception begins. There Mr. Bryan will be met by a sub-committee, headed by the chairman of the reception committee, Governor Folk of Missouri. Acting Mayor McGowan will be on hand to extend a welcome on behalf of the city of New York. There will be a few moments devoted to handshaking, and Mr. Bryan will then start on a short drive through the city. The ride through the streets is designed to give everybody a chance at least to see Mr. Bryan. There will be an informal reception in the parlors of the hotel as Mr. Bryan arrives. Mr. Bryan will be driven to the Madison Square Garden soon after 8 o'clock.

A conference at Mr. Nixon's house last night resulted in the adoption of a definite program for Mr. Bryan during his stay in the East. He will go to New Haven on Friday, and will have a reception at noon on the college green.

On the following day he will be in Bridgeport as the guest of Senator Archibald McNeil. Saturday afternoon he will speak in Newark and Jersey City, attending a dinner given him by New York newspaper men in the evening. He will leave New York for the West Sunday night or Monday.

Although a number will remain over for the horse show at the Casino, many are preparing to leave next week, while the following week many of the cottagers will return to their winter homes. At present the point arrivals equal those departing.

A NEW LIBRARIAN.

Miss Luella Katharine Leavitt to Succeed Miss Gardner at the Public.

The trustees of the Public Library have formally accepted the resignation of Miss Jane F. Gardner and passed appropriate resolutions on her departure, commending her work during the four years she has been in Newport, during which time a great deal has been done to improve the library and increase its work.

A new librarian was elected. There were many applications for the position, and the trustees decided on Miss Luella Katharine Leavitt of Boston. Miss Leavitt has been eleven years in the Boston Public Library and comes with excellent recommendations, and the trustees feel that she will make a good successor to Miss Gardner. She is not an entire stranger here, as she has two sisters, Misses Mary F. and Blanche Leavitt, teaching in the Rogers High school.

Miss Leavitt will report here Tuesday of next week, when Miss Gardner will leave for Seattle, taking with her the good wishes of the many she has met during her stay in Newport.

MISSING GIRLS RETURN HOME.

Two Newport girls—Mary Casey, 15 years old, of 71 Tilden avenue, and Isabelle Sullivan, 13 years old, of 63 Tilden avenue—who ran away from their homes August 17, appeared at the Central Police station in Providence last evening, looking for assistance in finding their way home. They said they had come to Boston, looking for work, and having failed to get anything to do and spent all their money, started yesterday morning for Newport, walking part of the way to Providence. Their parents were notified and the girls were lodged for the night in the Providence Rescue Home, and this morning were returned to Newport.

BLUES DEFEATED BY REDS.

Game Unexpectedly Brought to a Close by Accident to Mr. Rudolph L. Agassiz.

A special match for cups was played at the Westchester Polo Club grounds yesterday afternoon that developed some fast play, and that was unexpectedly brought to a close with three minutes of time left by an accident to Mr. Agassiz, who was doing the playing of the day and was scoring fast by some good, all-round work. The ball at the time was close to and almost in front of the Red goal, when an upward swing of a polo mallet caught Mr. Agassiz in the face and knocked three of his front teeth out of the jaw. Play was at once stopped, the missing teeth were found on the grass and Mr. Agassiz hurried in his automobile to see a dentist.

There was a good-sized gathering of society folks to see the play, the weather was fine and the ground was again in good condition for fast polo. One would expect that Mr. Agassiz and Mr. Monte Waterbury would sweep through the other players, but while they were the stars all the others were very much in the game and the lesser lights did not hesitate to steal the ball from the stars, out-ride them or do anything they could to spoil their play. At times it seemed as though Mr. Hazard was a little risky in his riding, for he rode hard and was in every play he could reach, and as he had fast ponies he was in many.

Mr. Burden also played a fast game, riding well and hitting hard. Mr. Rainey, like Mr. Hubn, found back play a little slow and was often up in the fray hitting the ball for goal and hitting it hard. For the victors, after Mr. Agassiz, Mr. Phipps played a strong game, his advance shots and cuts being good and his work accurate, while he placed himself well. This was shown at the end of the fifth goal. Mr. Vanderbilt had carried the ball almost to the Blue player backed it out and Mr. Phipps was on hand to drive it through for a goal. Mr. Vanderbilt did some good riding off and spoiled shots whenever he could and was in a number of good runs. Mr. Hahn made a good back. The saving at goal on both sides in critical times, and there were many critical times, was usually by either Mr. Agassiz or Mr. Waterbury, but for whose fast riding and accurate strikes many more goals would have been scored, for all the players were well on the ball and it rolled true and there were a great many accurate shots for goal on both sides. The Blues were looked on as a trifle the stronger team, having a heavier handicap, but owing to the brilliant work of Mr. Agassiz with good support, the Reds forged to the front and were leading by a safe margin when play ceased.

Among those present were Grenville Kane, Paul Andrews, H. L. Beekman, R. T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Barden, Miss Burden, Miss Sears, R. L. Gerry, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Norrie, W. S. Andrews, Mrs. W. H. T. Hahn, Benjamin Thaw, Misses Shuman, Mrs. Sedgwick, H. H. Ward, R. Nelson Brierley.

PURSE RECOVERED BY A DIVER.

When the Narada arrived home from Rocky Point Tuesday evening and the guests were boarding Captain Champion's launch to come ashore, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont dropped overboard a purse which she valued much for its associations. There is about 30 feet of water where the Narada lay, but the bottom is hard, and at Captain Champion's suggestion a buoy was put over at once to mark the spot where the purse was last seen.

Yesterday morning Commander Greaves of the Torpedo Station gave permission to the Station divers to try to recover the purse if they wished to do so. They were towed to the scene and Head Diver Jacob Anderson went down. He spent the morning hours in a vain search, but in the afternoon came up with the purse, which looked as well as ever. It was of gold, with diamonds and other precious stones, and contained $128. The purse and the money were sent to "Faileourt" and Mrs. Belmont was of course delighted when they arrived.

BARBER FINED FOR WORKING WITHOUT A LICENSE

Chairman Wadley and Thomas McArdle of the barber commission came to Newport Tuesday to investigate a complaint that a man was working as a journeyman barber in a shop on Thames street without a license. They found John H. Freeman employed at the place, and as Mr. Freeman's name did not appear on the records of the board as having qualified for tonsorial privileges they sought to impress upon him the necessity for complying with the law. Freeman did not see the necessity of complying with the request until he was arraigned in the district court and fined. Then he paid the fine and the license fee and resumed work.

DEWEY PRIZES SOLD.

Three Spanish ships captured by Admiral Dewey in Manila Bay May 1, 1898, were sold by the Navy Department today for $163. These ships were advertised at several Asiatic ports. The total cost of advertising being $28, and the Navy Department is quite well satisfied that the bids were sufficient to cover the expense of advertising.

The three ships are the Alfonso, Manileno and Mindinao. They have been stripped of everything movable and are simply old hulks, practically useless for any purpose of the navy.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and Hero is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit Mich.

TRACKS TO BE LOWERED.

Type of Locomotive Too High to Pass Under Central Falls Bridges.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 30.—Because the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad has purchased a new Atlantic and Pacific type of locomotive which is too high to pass under the three highway bridges just south of Central Falls station they will be obliged to lower the tracks between Pawtucket and Central Falls. Raising the grade of the streets over the railroad was not considered practicable, and the company decided to change the grade of the tracks to provide the required clearance. The cut will vary from two to 18 inches.

GIRLS STRIKE AGAIN.

Found They Were to Have an Advance of $1 instead of $1.50.

RUMFORD FALLS, Me., Aug. 30.—The 250 girl operatives of the Continental Paper Bag Company of New York, who understood last night that they had been granted an increase of 25 cents a day, for which they struck last week, again quit work today and the mill was shut down. It seems that the girls misunderstood the situation, and discovered that instead of an advance of $1.50 a week, to $7.50, they are to have an advance of only $1. Because of this they left the mill shortly after commencing work. They will hold a meeting tonight.

FOR COBB AND LITTLEFIELD.

Anti-Saloon League to Work With Maine Christian Civic League.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 30.—The National Anti-Saloon League is co-operating with the Maine Christian Civic League in the Maine political campaign preceding the state election September 10, according to an announcement today. Rev. Dr. Baker of Cleveland, Ohio, general superintendent of the national organization; Rev. E. C. Dinwiddie, legislative superintendent, with headquarters at Washington; Rev. S. E. Nicholson, national secretary and superintendent of the Pennsylvania league, and Rev. Israel Lace, an officer of the Maine league, have held a conference here, at which the best methods of assisting Governor William T. Cobb and Congressman Chas. E. Littlefield in their fight for re-election were discussed.

Mr. Nicholson stated that the league is supporting these two officials, not because they are Republicans, but because they stand for prohibition, and added that greater interest attaches to the re-election of Congressman Littlefield, as he has been the leader in Congress in securing national temperance legislation and is recognized as such all over the country. The league now has a number of workers in the state.

KAISER'S GRANDSON BAPTIZED.

Son of German Crown Prince Christened at Potsdam.

POTSDAM, Prussia, Aug. 29.—The son of Crown Prince Frederick William was baptized this afternoon in the so-called Japis gallery of the new palace, which had been arranged as a chapel, in the presence of the whole of the royal family, the Crown Princess of Greece, representing the Queen of Greece; Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, representing the King of England; Grand Duke Vladimir, representing the Emperor of Russia; Archduke Joseph, representing the Emperor of Austria; the Duke of Genoa, representing the King of Italy; the diplomatic corps, Prince von Buelow and the other members of the German cabinet and high military officials. The child was named William Frederick Francis Joseph Christian Olaf.

After the ceremony Crown Princess Sophie stood by the side of the cradle and held a levee. A dinner followed in the Marble Hall, at which Emperor William toasted his first grandchild.

TO FIGHT THE COURT PARTY

Premier Stolypin Employing the Newspapers.

Wants Dictatorship Conferred Upon Cabinet.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 30.—It is asserted that Premier Stolypin and his colleagues are employing the newspapers which they control to fight the court camarilla. This, it is added, is the secret of the Novoe Vremya's constant reference during the last few days to the necessity for protecting the cabinet from the interference of pernicious influences. M. Stolypin, in conversation with friends, is said to have asserted that he is continually subjected to embarrassment, adding that he was convinced that the task which he had set himself was impossible unless the emperor gave him an absolutely free hand, in other words, conferring upon the cabinet practically a dictatorship.

An intimation comes from a high source that the premier broached the subject last night at the first audience which he had had with His Majesty since the tragedy of August 25, when the explosion of a bomb at the premier's residence caused the loss of over 30 lives. In the aforementioned conversation with friends, the premier is alleged to have said that history seemed to be repeating itself, the situation closely resembling the closing days of the reign of Alexander II. The reactionary spirit was growing rapidly. Nevertheless, he considered it vital that the government should not take a reactionary path. If it did not do so, he felt confident that the measures which the cabinet projected would result in a majority of moderates being elected to Parliament as against the extremists on the left, whose aim was to overthrow the monarchy and establish a republic.

FOR POOR CROP DISTRICTS.

Imperial Ukase Authorizes the Issue of $25,000,000.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 30.—An imperial ukase, issued today, authorizes the minister of finance to issue $25,000,000 in four per cent rates, to cover the expenses of the relief of the districts affected by the failure of the crops.

Another ukase prolongs martial law where it has already been enforced, for another year.

WAS A REVOLUTIONIST.

Residence of Manistrate Headquarters for Propaganda.

KIEV, Russia, Aug. 30.—A requisition at the residence of M. Minshinko, who is an examining magistrate for political crimes here, has led to the startling discovery that he was a member of the revolutionary organization and that his residence was the headquarters for the propagandist in this vicinity.

TO DELIMIT THE FRONTIER.

Commission Made Up of Turks and Bulgarians Appointed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 30.—A Turco-Bulgarian commission has been appointed to delimit the portion of the frontier of the vilayet of Adrianople, which is in dispute, and which led to a somewhat sharp fight recently between the soldiers, guarding the Bulgarian post at Sujak and the guard on duty at the Turkish post of Dervish Mongolka.

EMPEROR RECEIVES AMERICANS.

Officers Meet With Cordial Reception From Kaiser.

BERLIN, Aug. 30.—Ambassador Tower today presented Brigadier General Thomas H. Barry and his party to War Minister Von Einem and Chief of the General Staff Von Moltke, after which the American officers attended, at the emperor's invitation, the ceremony at the palace of nailing the flags to their staffs, on which occasion the visitors were presented to His Majesty, who received them with great cordiality, engaging General Barry and Brigadier General William P. Duvall in conversation.

TO ELECT JESUIT GENERAL.

Delegates to Congregation of Company of Jesus Arriving in Rome.

ROME, Aug. 30.—The delegates to the Congregation of the Company of Jesus are arriving here, to go into convention to elect a general of the society. The election will be held about September 1. This important post has been vacant since May, when the last general, Father Martin, died. According to the constitution of the order drawn up by Stignatius, its founder, when he was called to Rome in 1540, by Pope Paul III, each general at his death leaves a will, in which he indicates who among his assistants, five in number, shall act as his temporary successor, under the name of vicar, and direct affairs until the congregation can be called.

In his will the late head of the Jesuits appointed as vicar father Ruggiero Freddi, who was his assistant for the Italian provinces. The other assistants were Father Rudolph Myer of St. Louis Mo., for the Anglo-Saxon provinces; Father Maurice Meschler, for the German; Father John Joseph Ochoterre, for the Spanish, and Father Pino for the French. Father Myer is well known in America, having served as provincial of the order in St. Louis, and having been president of the Jesuit colleges in Cincinnati, Chicago and Detroit, while in his youth he was a student at Woodstock, Md., and at Georgetown University, where afterwards he taught philosophy.

The congregation of the Jesuits to elect their general has some resemblance to the conclave for the election of the Pope, there being the same secrecy and the same seclusion.

$1 for glasses you formerly paid other dealers from $5 to $10 for, including lenses, gold seamless wire frames and no charge for examining the eyes.

ONE DAY ONLY,
Parlors of the Perry House,
NEWPORT,
FRIDAY, AUGUST 31.
Hours 9 A. M. Until 4.30 P. M.

The exact measurement of your face fits and every frame made to order, so the frame will set correctly and not hurt your face.

Any style we manufacture, either rims or rimless.

Your eyes will be examined by THE DAMMERS SCIENTIFIC METHOD. Positively the only absolutely correct way to fit glasses.

NO DROPS USED. Those who have been examined for GLASSES by men who claim to examine eyes by the old incorrect way, which is done by everyone who supplies glasses but us, will be agreeably surprised by our scientific and wonderful methods of examining eyes, and fitting glasses.

We correct your eye defects by looking in the eyes, taking the exact scientific measurements of the focus and shape of the eyes.

NO QUESTIONS ASKED, no trying glasses on your face, until we have determined your exact optical error.

The old tedious and tiresome way of trying to fit glasses is either putting drops in the eyes, which often causes BLINDNESS, or by trying on a lot of glasses, and asking you "Can you see these letters?" or "Do these glasses make you see better?"

After your optician does a lot of guessing, and has your eyes all out of shape, you think you have been examined.

Think this over, and you can readily see that you have been doing your own examining, and that is no doubt the reason you have had trouble to get glasses correct.

THIS IS ABSOLUTELY THE HIGHEST CLASS WORK DONE IN FITTING GLASSES IN AMERICA—DON'T SUFFER WITH HEADACHE.

We have produced astonishing results from Headache, nervous debility, insomnia, dizziness, nausea, WATERY EYES, blurry vision, and other troubles caused by EYE STRAIN. We have corrected by the use of glasses CROSS EYES and misalignment, by our scientific methods of examining.

An experience covering every detail of the optical business for over a quarter of a century is the continuous record of the great Dammers concern.

Our position in Newark, N. J., and Providence, R. I., as the LEADING EYESIGHT SPECIALISTS is proof of the high confidence in our responsibility, and the reliability of our representations.

ASK SUSPENSION OF DUTIES.

Present Conditions Threaten Existence of Newchang.

NEWCHWANG, Aug. 30.—Japan's notification that it will continue Dalny as a free port until China provides customs houses on the Russian frontier, resulted today in the chamber of commerce here petitioning the consular body to suspend the collection of duties at Newchwang, pending the regulation of Manchurian customs. The chamber of commerce maintains that the present condition threatens the existence of Newchwang.

TO TAKE MATTER TO COURT.

Members of American Band Incensed at Action of Musicians' Union.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 30.—An action which the members of Reeves American Band may take in connection with their recent trouble with the local musicians' union, according to several of the members, will be to petition the courts for an injunction to stop further proceedings of the Musicians' Union and take the matter to court. The members of the band are much incensed over the action of the executive board of the local Musicians' Union in expelling Bowen R. Church, leader of the band, and fining the individuals $25 each. Some of the band say that for years the union has not favored the American Band because it is an incorporated body. Mr. Church was asked today for an opinion of the decision made against him, but refused to say anything directly about the matter. He stated that the band as a body would have to take action on it, and this would probably be done at a meeting to be held soon.

NAMES CANNOT BE REMOVED.

Decision of New York Supreme Court on Insurance Ticket Case.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 30.—The appellate division of the supreme court, third department, this afternoon affirmed the order of Justice Howard in special term, denying the application for a mandamus requiring Superintendent Kelsey of the state insurance department to remove from the "administration ticket" for trustees of the Mutual Life Insurance Company the names of four members of the international policy holders' committee. The arguments in the case were made this morning, concluded about noon, and the court almost immediately gave his decision. An appeal will doubtless be taken to the court of appeals.

A block of 8,000 shares changed hands at 190, yesterday's closing was 187⅜, Great Northern preferred jumped 5½ to 321, but did not retain its full advance. Baltimore & Ohio gained 2, St. Paul 1½ and Pennsylvania, Norfolk & Western and Ontario & Western a point. Reading improved at 149 compared with 149¼, yesterday's final figures. The stock was freely offered and so lost about all of its advance.

Noon—Money on call, strong, at 6 per cent; prime mercantile paper 6 per cent. Stock prices continued to sag in the second hour owing to the high rates for call money. At the lower levels Reading over last night lost two points, Smelting 1⅝, and New York Central, Atchison and Colorado Fuel one. United States Express exceptionally improved 8 points, American Express 2 and International Pump preferred 2½. Business had dwindled to almost nominal proportions by midday and the decline was unchecked. Bonds were steady.

WINS RACE FOR 30-FOOTERS.

W. G. Roelker's Breeze Comes In First—The Eaglet Victor Among 15-Footers.

The 30-footers were out for a race yesterday afternoon, the prize being a cup given by Mr. H. G. Havemeyer. There were five boats in at the start, but at the finish there was but one really in it and that was the Breeze, Mr. W. G. Roelker, Jr., which finished so far in front that there was nothing to the race. There was a great deal, however, between the start and the finish. The course was to Dyer's Island, going to the west of Rose Island both ways. On the run up the wind was southwest and the Vaquero was practically alone, turning the mark far in advance. The Caprice was second, the Breeze third, the Esperanza fourth and the old, reliable Carolina was last.

After the turn various things happened. The Breeze and Caprice went to the east shore and caught an easterly breeze which just pushed them along, the Vaquero held to the midway and steadily dropped back, and the Carolina went wind-hunting to the west shore and caught an easterly breeze which put her out of the running. There were all sorts of winds in the bay; first one boat was headed, then another and it was a question how they were going to finish. The start the Breeze received off the east shore, however, stood to her and Mr. Roelker came home a winner. Then the Vaquero and Caprice had a hitting match off Rose Island, and the Carolina from last place sneaked by and catching a fair tide reached the Dumplings, where she caught some of the southwester that was supposed to be blowing all the time and finished third, just after the Esperanza, which had made the same Dumpling move. The Vaquero finished fourth and Caprice fifth.

Mr. Roelker sailed the Breeze in good style, Mr. Havemeyer was at the helm on the Esperanza, Mr. Pembroke Jones handled the tiller on the Carolina, and Messrs. Payne Whitney and Reginald Brooks argued over where the Vaquero should go, Mr. Monson sailed the Caprice, with suggestions from Mr. Vanderbilt. What the 30-footers need is a wind that will hold from somewhere and will not wet the sails as did yesterday's damp weather, and they hope to have it on Friday or Saturday when they next meet for the Roelker cup.

At the same time the 15-footers had a sail which was won by Mr. Grosvenor on the Eaglet, with Mr. Wetherill in Wonovah second, Mr. Lippitt in the Snipe third, Mr. Morgan in Whisper fourth, his sister, Miss Morgan, in Echo fifth, and Pembroke Jones, Jr., in Dixie sixth and last. Mr. Jones made a record by picking up a life preserver and carrying it about until it put him out of the racing. Lobster pot buoys have been the terror of the sea to the 30-footers and also to the 15, but this is the first time that a life preserver has put a boat out of the racing.

THE BOULEVARD PROJECT.

During the heat of summer perhaps most people have lost sight of the project for a boulevard about the northern section of the city, but others have kept the subject in mind and are working on it. The extension of Washington street is the matter at present holding attention, and here a stumbling block is met. An effort is being made by the Ellery estate to have the roadway swing around the residence and run north sufficiently back from the shore to permit building sites on the shore. There is no disposition to report any such plan for adoption, since this would defeat the very purpose of the boulevard, which is to give a shore drive from Battery Park to Coddington Point, where the roadway would then swing across country to Easton's Beach. Since the agitation for this water drive came up a cottage for Mrs. G. H. Sage has been started on the little bit of land just north of Fort Greene. Members of the Park Commission, who are particularly interested in providing an acceptable layout for the boulevard, are in hopes of being able to develop a plan before there are more encroachments on the water front.

COMMITTED SUICIDE IN A CELL.

About 8 o'clock last evening Officer Gregory discovered a prisoner in a cell at the police station in a peculiar position. He opened the door and found the occupant dead, though the body was still warm. He had strangled himself with his suspenders. A medical examiner was summoned, but the man was beyond human aid. As late as 7 o'clock he had asked and was given a glass of water.

The deceased was George F. Blake, who came here from New York state as helper at second base in a stable. Recently he had been employed at a garage but owing to his habits his work was not steady and his family, who resided on Dresser street, suffered. As often before, he was arrested yesterday morning for abusing his wife and child, and also for putting the former to much trouble by upsetting and injuring a wash which she had taken for the season to support herself and family. Before his arrest he had threatened to borrow a pistol and shoot himself, as well as his wife. He was 39 years of age.

NAVAL RESERVES BACK.

Columbia Returns After Unexpectedly Short Cruise.

Experiences of the Men and Duties Performed on the Voyage.

In accordance with information received at the Training Station early this week, cruiser Columbia, the Naval Reserve practice ship, arrived here this afternoon, dropping anchor about 1:45 o'clock. On her was the Rhode Island Naval Battalion, which sailed from here last Saturday and has since had a real taste of seasickness. Converted gunboat Hist was in readiness for the arrival of the big ship, and before the Columbia had fairly anchored the Rifle transport was alongside, ready to take on board the members of the up-the-river divisions, while the Newport division was left to come ashore in the ship's launches.

The Columbia is scheduled to leave here at 6 o'clock tonight and go to Portland, Maine, where she will take on board the Maine Reserves, who will probably see the President's review at Oyster Bay next Monday, as the Columbia is one of the ships scheduled to participate.

The Rhode Island boys are a little "salty" on the form of their cruise, and unexpectedly so, but last year they had an unexpectedly long tour, going out for a week as they supposed and remaining two, because the captain had orders for two and was not under the orders of Rhode Island's military department.

The Columbia reached Hampton Roads Tuesday and left that night for the return. Though the length of the cruise is necessarily shortened, the battalion gained some valuable experience, and, barring the discomforts of seasickness, realized both pleasure and profit from its trip.

The battalion, which is in command of Commander William C. Bliss, left Rhode Island Saturday last. The headquarters and staff, together with the Third and Fourth divisions, of Providence and East Providence, respectively, embarked on the Wasp, attached to the Naval Training Station, which sailed from Providence for Bristol at 7:05 a. m. A slight fog, encountered in the upper bay, delayed the arrival at Bristol, which was reached at 8:52 a. m., where the First division of the battalion embarked. Newport was reached at 10:18 a. m., where the officers and men of the Second division were found already on board the Columbia, having gone off in launches to the ship.

The Naval Militia, when embarked, marched in on the starboard side of the main deck, where bags and hammocks were deposited, the First division being forward and the Fourth division aft. Hammocks were placed in the hammock nettings and the bags were hung up. When this had been done, the First division was marched on the forecastle, the Second and Third divisions on the superstructure, and the Fourth division on the quarter deck, where the divisional officers of the ship, assisted by the Naval Militia officers, gave out station billets, and assigned the men to their duties.

Preparations were immediately made for sea, boats hoisted in and secured, and anchor was weighed at 11:31 a. m. The weather was fair, and as the vessel proceeded to sea she passed close by the new battleship Rhode Island. Proper courtesies were exchanged, the marine guard on each ship being paraded and each band playing "The Star Spangled Banner," while all men stood at attention and faced the ship.

Next in order came dinner and the hungry men fell to with a vengeance, consuming large quantities of ship's fare, to the sorrow of many a short time later, when the swells of the ocean began to take hold.

The Columbia proceeded to the eastward of Block Island, and when Southeast light house was reached, steam was reduced to two boilers, and with a speed of about eight knots per hour a course was taken off south 42 degrees west for the capes of the Chesapeake.

When some eight miles from Block Island the vessel was temporarily placed in charge of the Naval Militia officers. A rank was thrown overboard, and these officers gave the necessary commands to turn the vessel around and come up to the rank, so that the same could be picked up with grappling hooks. The men were further instructed in their duties, and by night everyone was securely stationed, and the routine was running smoothly.

The same general plan of instruction that was used by Commander Bowyer on the Columbia last year was followed. The five senior watch officers of the battalion were paired off with the five regular watch officers of the ship. They assumed charge of the deck at once. All orders for the management of the ship were given by the Naval Militia officers, and the boatswain's mates of the battalion were placed in charge of the port and starboard watches, sounding their pipes and passing the word, and carrying out the orders as given by the officer of the deck.

Sunday was fair with a smooth sea. At 9:25 a. m. Captain Bowyer inspected the ship's company and quarters at general muster, after which the entire ship's company, except those actively engaged in running the ship, were gathered together on the quarter deck, and the articles for the government of the navy were read. The remainder of the day was given over to the Naval Militia to enable them to familiarize themselves with the ship. Sunday being a holiday for the navy as on shore.

Sunday evening the ground swell increased considerably, as did the motion of the ship, and Monday morning found several of the men fighting to keep off the dreaded "mal de mer." A few unfortunates succumbed, while the regulars quietly smiled at their misfortune. Quartermasters of the Naval Militia commanded the wheel, and every two hours, naval militiamen relieved each other there. In the mess department, the chief master-at-arms of the battalion took charge of the mess cooks and supervised the serving of the food.

Lieutenant (J. G.) Oscar E. Stone was assigned by Commander Bliss to duty in the engine room, standing a regular watch there, while several enlisted men also performed duty with the engineer's division.

Chief Electrician Frederic S. Cutting was patrol off with like officers of the ship's company, and with the wireless apparatus, communication was had constantly with all shore stations as the vessel proceeded down the coast.

Monday afternoon the vessel anchored just south of Cape Henry and opposite Virginia beach, about eight miles distant. Drill was held through the day by the gun pointers with the Morris cube attached to guns in preparation for the target practice. In the evening there was general drill and instruction with the searchlight and signal lights up to 8:30 o'clock.

Early Tuesday morning the target was prepared and at 9:25 a. m. was hove overboard and anchored, while the vessel steamed off to a range of about 1,200 yards and steamed back and forth by the target.

Eighteen gun pointers were allowed six shots each with the six-pounder rifles, the forward guns being in charge of Lieutenant C. E. Lawton of Newport and the after guns in charge of Lieutenant E. P. Gladding of Bristol.

The target was triangular in shape and the shooting of the Rhode Island men was pronounced very fair by Captain Bowyer. The target was almost completely destroyed, the mast being cut in two by one of the shots. The best string was made by Gunner's Mate Thomas C. Freeborn, second class, of Newport, all six of whose shots were scored as hits.

Target practice was completed and the battery secured at 11:30 a. m. The target was then picked up and the vessel headed for Hampton Roads, which was reached at 2 p. m. Mail was sent ashore. At 5 p. m. the Columbia was again headed to sea, en route to Newport.

The boatswain's mates, who had charge of the watches, were Charles Watson of Providence, Daniel Richardson of Newport, Duncan McLeah of Newport and George B. Gladding of Bristol.

The quartermasters standing quartermasters' watches were John R. Mayer of Bristol, Arthur F. Nelson and Charles B. Eldredge, both of Newport, and John M. Macready of Providence.

The U. S. S. Columbia has the following complement of commissioned officers: Commander John M. Bowyer, commanding; Lieutenant Commander Jay H. Syner, executive officer; Lieutenant Commander Barton L. Wright, surgeon; Lieutenant Newton Mansfield, engineer officer; first lieutenant of marines; Ensign Andrew C. Pickens, Ensign Robert R. Hilliard, Ensign Joseph D. Little, Midshipman W. Leggett, Midshipman Claude A. Bouvillian and Midshipman Ray P. Smith. Only two of these officers, outside of Captain Bowyer, were of the ship's company when the battalion went out last year.

NEW YORK CITY'S BOUNTY TO THE BLIND.

[New York Tribune.]

The payment of New York city's annual bounty to the blind adult poor of the municipality began yesterday at the office of the City Paymaster, John H. Timmerman, and will continue two more days. This custom is so old that the mind of man runneth not to the contrary, but this year there has been an innovation in the method of payment.

Formerly only one day was set apart for the distribution, and this meant that many of the unfortunate recipients had to wait hours for their turn. This year the payment is being distributed over three days and no one is kept waiting.

Every year the city appropriates a certain amount for this purpose, and the sum is divided among such of the blind population as are dependent upon their own exertions or upon relatives, those receiving aid from other sources being excluded.

The appropriation this year was $51,570 and this divided among 1,070 makes $51 apiece—$1 more than last year. The money is paid in coin—two $20 gold pieces, one $10 piece and one silver dollar, as the recipients would not be able to use paper money. They do not know until the money is placed in their hands how much they are to get, and the payment is a most pathetic sight. Some receive the dole with apathy, but the majority are overcome with gratitude. If any are unable to come for the money it is sent to their homes by special messengers.

There had been a collision between a butcher's cart and an automobile. The policeman was taking copious notes regarding the accident. "Mummie," said a small boy on the outskirts of the crowd, "why does the policeman always lick the end of his pencil before writing?" "To make the case look as black as possible, I suppose," answered "Mummie," wearily, as she helped the inquisitive child into the 'bus.

THE POPE'S LACE.

[Modern Society.]

The priceless vestments stored in the cedar wood cabinets at the Vatican have been added to from time to time since the days of the Borgias. It was the custom of the great houses of Italy, Spain and Austria to present the costly lace worn at weddings of royal and high-born brides to the church, and naturally the most valuable of all found its way to the pontiff. The late Pope and his predecessor both cared for lace for its own sake, and the contents of those cedar wood cabinets were most carefully looked to. Catalogues were kept, and the histories of each specimen were entered in the inventories, which are bound in volumes for easy and immediate reference.

The present Pope knows nothing at all about the subject. So long as his vestments are clean and appropriate to the ceremony of the duty of the hour he is content. His white lawn chasuble might be fringed with Nottingham knitting at twopence-half penny a yard for all his holiness would care. But he is very particular that all the treasures of which he is temporary master shall be safely guarded and duly cared for.

One day he sent for Count Soderini, one of the masters of ceremonies to the late Pope, and had a long conversation with him as to this very collection of lace, finishing up with a gentle request that the Count would teach him the difference between the various kinds. "I am sadly ignorant upon many subjects, I find," said Pius X.—surely one of the most modest of great men—" and this stuff is very pretty indeed! Yes, it must be carefully kept as a possession of the Holy See." The possession is officially valued at £18,000.

LA GRECQUE CORSETS.

There is as much difference in Corsets as in Women.

A pretty face does not always represent a good housekeeper. Neither does a showy cover guarantee a lot of wear in a corset. Some women have a bad temper, no matter how nice they are out in company. But a LA GRECQUE corset always is the same, and is easily the queen when in good company.

For the past six weeks Mrs. Bacon has been demonstrating the goodness of LA GRECQUE corsets to Newport women and she has made many converts. We are perfectly safe in saying that today, there are 1,800 women wearing LA GRECQUES, and that means more happy, self-satisfied women than ever before, because this corset has more good points than any three corsets made.

This is to be Mrs. Bacon's last week with us, and we would suggest to all who have not done so that they come in and be fitted, and avail themselves of a sure fitting at the hands of an expert corsetier, and secure a LA GRECQUE corset, at no greater cost than others less good.
